Doug's message on happiness is insightful, touching, and very pertinent in today's fast paced and challenging world we live in. Doug's unique combination of wisdom and humor were a wonderful addition to the meeting – and the message genuinely resonated with the entire audience. Never have I had some many on the team thank me for bringing in someone with such a wonderful message – how to find and develop the skills that lead to "happiness". I highly recommend Doug Smith for your next key note presentation.

—Andy McFetridge, National Sales Manager, John Hancock Investments

Doug's outlook on life is unique and the energy he brings engages a room. His message on happiness is uplifting, challenging and impactful. The feedback from all participants has been extremely positive with requests for additional experiences. He provides a simple framework to develop the skill of happiness that all can understand and apply. I highly recommend Doug to any organization looking for an inspirational speaker that can lift the room and connect with each individual.

—David L. Kaufman, President & CEO, Motorists Insurance Group

His content is clear and impactful; his delivery is touching yet challenging. Doug's presentation and workshop brought significant personal development for our Franchise Partners and Managers. By going through the experience together it also built a whole new level of connectedness and alignment within our organization.
